

Best New Boutique
TRUE

Best Skeletons and Preserved Specimens
ROOM OF LOST THINGS

Best Place to Buy a Buffalo Skull
ORR'S TRADING COMPANY

Best Skull-Cleaning Services
THE LEARNED LEMUR

Best Offbeat Gift Shop
REMIKED GIFTS

Best Colorado-Centric Shop Within a Shop
1876 J BASECAMP, INSIDE WILLOW: AN ARTISAN'S MARKET

Best Thrift Store
GOODWILL

Best Free Service
LOCKERS FOR THE HOMELESS

Best Flea Market
THE DENVER FLEA

Best Local Instagram-Based Vintage Shop
@ZIMMSVINTAGE

Best Shop for Vintage Accessories
REGAL VINTAGE

Best Vintage Pickin'
GOLDMINE VINTAGE

Best Vintage Eccentric
TEN PENNY STORE

Best Antiques and Curiosities
NINNI & FOFFA'S

Best Shop for Vintage Accessories
REGAL VINTAGE

Best Vintage Pickin'
GOLDMINE VINTAGE

Best Vintage Eccentric
TEN PENNY STORE

Best Antiques and Curiosities
NINNI & FOFFA'S

Best Chip-Off-the-Old-Block Boutique
TRUNK NOUVEAU

Best Of :: Shopping & Services
BEST OF DENVER® /// SHOPPING & SERVICES /// 2018
BEST NEW BOUTIQUE
True

Courtesy True Facebook page

Denver retail entrepreneur Shana Colbin Dunn opened her first store, the accessory-heavy Kismet, in 2006 in Highlands Square, and it grew over the years into a three-store Denver metro empire based on good management and impeccable merchandise. But when she moved into Stanley Marketplace last year, it was with a different concept and a new name. True is all about de-stressing and simplifying life, offering clean, beautiful clothing and Colbin Dunn's greatest proven strength – well-curated accessories and jewelry – while also addressing women's wellness through pampering products, books and workshops. It's a cutting-edge business for tough emotional times, and stay tuned: A second True is opening its doors this spring in the LoHi Marketplace in Highland, with more of the same.

2501 Dallas St., Aurora, 80010 MAP
kismetaccessories.com

BEST OF DENVER® /// SHOPPING & SERVICES /// 2018

BEST NEW BOUTIQUE
True

MORE

Courtesy True Facebook page

